About Blue Cross & Blue Crescent Society

The Blue Cross and Blue Crescent Society (BC) has been registered under the India Societies Registration Act XXI of 1860 Registration Number S-E/682/2015.

The Blue Cross and Blue Crescent Society (BC) has been Affiliated to United Nation-DESA and Associated with The World Peace Gong/The World Peace Committee 202 countries, Indonesia.

The Blue Cross & Blue Crescent (BC) is a Worldwide, Nonprofits, Charitable, Nongovernmental, Politically and Religiously neutral humanitarian response agency involved in disaster response, first response, search and rescue, lifeguarding, frontline activism, advocacy and skills sharing organization with headquarters in India. Our strength lies in our volunteer network of community based humanitarian workers, medics, first aiders, first responders, lifeguards, rescue workers, activists, advocates, lobbyists and educator who offer their skills in service 'For All Humanity'.

We actively persuade decision makers to act at all times in the interests of vulnerable or at risk people and communities. We are created to enable all interested humanitarian workers, to offer their skills, in particularly, as first aiders and first responders covering high risk events and lifeguard cover to reduce the incidents of drowning deaths, to enable medical and healthcare professionals to offer their skills as humanitarian medics for the promotion of humanitarian community public health, to improve humanitarian standards, to poverty regions, disaster stricken or disaster vulnerable regions, to enable all interested humanitarian rescue workers to offer their skills in those disaster stricken regions, and to provide education programs in disaster awareness, preparation & prevention, survival skills, emergency planning in disaster vulnerable regions, so our members can assist, albeit in a small way to provide help, hope, health and harmony 'for all humanity', thus we promote

Our programs help us improve humanitarian standards, assist as partners in response to disasters, enable safe, secure and healthy communities, reduce vulnerabilities, strengthen resilience, and promote a culture of peace around the world.

The organization has successfully organized many health camps & relief camps in India & organized many humanitarian programs in other part of world with its volunteers spread in other countries. We are a well known name in the Humanitarian sector in the world. Though the organization was officially registered two years before we have done many humanitarian activities before the official registration.

Our Vision:

The Vision of the Movement is to 'inspire, encourage, facilitate and promote at all times all forms of humanitarian activities, 'for all humanity' with a view to preventing and alleviating human suffering, and thereby contribute in meeting common global challenges, to maintain and promote human dignity and peace in the world.

Our Mission

The Mission of the Movement is to work to build a better world by strengthening and improving the Movement to provide an effective and efficient humanitarian service 'for all humanity' through the engagement of humanitarian activists who share in our vision.
